Fellowship
Newsletter*

*An Index of
Main Articles
Newsletter 1, October 1980
to Newsletter 89, January 2023*

In April 1999, Fellowship member John Barnes produced the first index to the Edward Thomas Fellowship Newsletters. The index covered the period 1980 to 1999 Newsletter numbers 1 to 40 inclusive.

John in his introduction stated that members of the Fellowship gain much pleasure from the contents and on occasions find the need to refer back to a particular item or article, but where to find them?

Retirement held the key for John, enabling him to collate all the material from the first forty editions. Seven years later I found myself in that same situation, retirement and all the pleasure that it brings. It seemed sensible to follow the same format that John used, not all the items are listed, and as with any index it must be somewhat subjective.

The headings are as the published articles wherever possible.

The first eighteen Newsletters were compiled by the founder and first Chairman of the Edward Thomas Fellowship, Anne Mallinson assisted by Alan A. Martin the Hon. Secretary at that time.

Richard Emeny became the editor of the Newsletter with edition nineteen and continued to fill the Newsletter which gradually developed into a journal of erudite scholarship until edition 61, when the reins were taken over by Dr Guy Cuthbertson. From edition 78 Julia Maxted took control. In January 2021, David Kerslake agreed to become our editor.

We owe much to our previous editors for the time and effort that they have put into making the Newsletters a publication that we all look forward to receiving with great anticipation throughout the year.

Colin G. Thornton
Past Hon. Secretary
Edward Thomas Fellowship
